

The FCC has a responsibility to protect the PUBLIC airways. It is certainly not in the public interest to have the airways controlled by a handful of very rich and powerful people. I hope the FCC will be vigilant and fulfill their responsibility to the public and prevent the kind of abuses that Sinclair has been trying to perpetrate. Thank you,

Sincerely,

Elaine Krempholtz